Wanted!

Sweet, good-natured, multi-talented, and intelligent 13 year old, extremely patient and especially good with little kids. Takes her studies seriously, yet still makes time to enjoy herself with friends and help out at home. Must be tolerant of little sister wanting to play "The intsy wintsy spider" a hundred times a day and of little brother ripping up notes. Only a true Bas Yisroel with shining quality midos need apply.

Dearest Blimi,

Who would have thought that anyone could fit the description of this ad, yet you go even beyond those limits. May you continue to be a source of nachas to the whole family.

Love,

Tatty, Mommy and the family

It was just the other day that we heard the words "Mazel Tov It's a baby girl!" Oh, what a cute baby girl that was! That was the beginning of a beautiful career of parenting. Although it wasn't always easy, you made every step of the way rewarding. You started out rough (you were colicky) and you blossomed every step of the way.

Sara Esther, we are so grateful to Hashem for the way you turned out.

We are so proud of you. You are sweet, kind, caring and exhibit all the characteristic of a true Bas Yisroel.

May Hashem bentch us that the continuation of this journey be as wonderful and rewarding as it is and you continue to grow in your Midos Tovos and bring Nachas to your whole family.

With much love,

Totty, Mommy, Uziel, Nechama, Bracha, Ita & Michal Bodner

Mazel Tov to a special granddaughter and sister
-Gitty-

We stand beside you on this momentous occasion,
A milestone in your life-your graduation.
Some words we'd like to impart,
A message that comes straight from our heart.
Eight years have passed-how much you've grown,
Your sterling midos to all are known.
You are bright, caring and helping too,
there's nobody quite like you.
We hope that we'll see nachas from you forever,
With happiness, success and bracha in your every endeavor.
May your future be sunshine bright,
And Derech Hatorah be your guiding light.

to our dearest
Rivky Braun

My! How quickly the years have flown,
Our little Rivky is completely grown.
We simply cannot express our surprise and elation,
Upon your upcoming graduation.
You have made us proud, yes indeed,
Absorbed all that you learned and taken heed.
Listened to what in school you were taught,
Didn't let all those years go for naught.
You have acquired fine Yiddishe midos galore,
For that we are truly thankful for.
So now let us express our best wishes to you,
May the future be a bright one for you.
May it be happy, healthy and successful too,
May we always see lots of Yiddishe nachas from you.
